

Parish Mission Guidelines for Musicians

First Night

The only song that is sung this night is the closing song: Here I am Lord.

Second Night

Mass will not begin until 7:30 or 7:45 PM. Mass will either be the Mass of the day if there is a memorial that needs to be celebrated or it will be the votive Mass for the Holy Eucharist. There is no entrance procession, but at about on half hour of introduction, I will ask everyone to stand and start Mass with a gathering song. The music this night needs to be kept at a minimum, because of all the different exercises that will be taking place, but we can still sing all the Mass parts: Responsorial psalm, Gospel Acclamation, Sanctus, Memorial Acclamation, Great Amen. The other music used with Mass should have love or Eucharist for its theme. I have attached song suggestions, but you can use whatever your parish knows well – we always look for full participation in all the songs.

Third Night

This night has no formal music during the Mission presentation, but there needs to be Music played while the people are going to confession. Since this night tends to go on very long I suggest that you pick any background music that is appropriate to play throughout the night. Some parishes have live music for an hour or so, and then put in on a CD. It is totally up to you.

Fourth Night

Again Adoration will not begin until 7:30 or 7:45 PM. There is no entrance procession but a half hour on introduction. When adoration begins, the opening song is sung that is printed on the sheets: “O Saving Victim” is sung in Latin or English or both; whatever your parish normally sings.

At about 8:00 PM we will begin with the Eucharistic Procession, see the suggestions on the attached sheet.

After the Eucharistic Procession there will also be a very short introduction to the anointing rite. While the people come forward to be anointed they can sing suitable songs that are suggested on the attached sheet.

Benediction will be the last thing that happens this night and it will usually happen at 8:55 PM. At that time the Song printed on the Handout “Down in Adoration Falling” is sung in either Latin or English or both; whatever your parish normally sings.

After the Diving praises the closing hymn for the Mission is sung: Holy God We praise thy name; again this is printed on the handout.
